

Appendix A: Self-assessment form

This self-assessment form should be completed by the complaints officer and it must be reviewed and approved by the landlord's governing body at least annually.

Once approved, landlords must publish the self-assessment as part of the annual complaints performance and service improvement report on their website. The governing body's response to the report must be published alongside this.

Landlords are required to complete the self-assessment in full and support all statements with evidence, with additional commentary as necessary.

We recognise that there may be a small number of circumstances where landlords are unable to meet the requirements, for example, if they do not have a website. In these circumstances, we expect landlords to deliver the intentions of the Code in an alternative way, for example by publishing information in a public area so that it is easily accessible.

Section 1: Definition of a complaint

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
1.2	A complaint must be defined as: ‘an expression of dissatisfaction, however made, about the standard of service, actions or lack of action by the landlord, its own staff, or those acting on its behalf, affecting a resident or group of residents.’	Yes	Our Policies Reports & Policies Who We Are The Pioneer Group 703-Complaints-Policy.pdf	Evidenced in Section 4 of our complaints policy available on our website, also posters are present in shared living spaces.

A complaint that is submitted via a third party or representative must be handled in line with the landlord’s complaints policy.	Yes	Our Policies Reports & Policies Who We Are The Pioneer Group 703-Complaints-Policy.pdf	Evident in Section 4 of complaints policy.
1.4	Landlords must recognise the difference between a service request and a complaint. This must be set out in their complaints policy. Service requests are not complaints, but must be	Yes	Our Policies Reports & Policies Who We Are The Pioneer Group 703-Complaints-Policy.pdf	Stated in Section 4 of our complaints policy. 1.6	An expression of dissatisfaction with services made through a survey is not defined as a complaint, though wherever possible, the person completing the survey should be made aware of how they can pursue a complaint if they wish to. Where landlords ask for wider feedback about their services, they also must provide details of how residents can complain.	Yes		We use surveys to capture transactional feedback; customers can request contact when completing our feedback surveys. If we contact the customer and there remains dissatisfaction, then we can raise a complaint.

Yes	Our Policies Reports & Policies Who We Are The Pioneer Group 703-Complaints-Policy.pdf	All complaints are logged and administered with Stage 1 as the starting point.

5.7	When a complaint is acknowledged at either stage, landlords must be clear which aspects of the complaint they are, and are not, responsible for and clarify any areas where this is not clear.	No		Currently clarification comes as part of the investigation process to ensure the complaint is investigated thoroughly. 5.8	At each stage of the complaints process, complaint handlers must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. deal with complaints on their merits, act independently, and have an open mind; b. give the resident a fair chance to set out their position; c. take measures to address any actual or perceived conflict of interest; and d. consider all relevant information and evidence carefully. No	Our Policies Reports & Policies Who We Are The Pioneer Group 703-Complaints-Policy.pdf	Whilst our policy states that we will complete all complaints within the specified timescale or agree an extension with our customer, we have experienced issues over the last 12 months in achieving this. We always endeavour to meet this standard,

				however, having recognised that we do not always do this we have taken steps to try and prevent this from happening as we move forward. Actions include: additional training and guidance for staff, the creation of a complaint handling handbook, the appointment of a dedicated Complaints Assistant to support investigating officers. Poor performance by colleagues is also being managed through formal performance management in one to one meetings and in Annual reviews.

Yes	Our Policies Reports & Policies Who We Are The Pioneer Group 703-Complaints-Policy.pdf	Evident in section 6 of complaints policy.
